

EDUCATION AND SOCIAL WORK

Reading Recovery Tutor Training 2020 Postgraduate Diploma in Education (Reading Recovery specialisation)

Applications are invited for Reading Recovery Tutor training being offered in 2020 by the University of Auckland, Faculty of Education and Social Work, as a Postgraduate Diploma in Education (Reading Recovery specialisation). See www.readingrecovery.ac.nz for more information on Reading Recovery.

Reading Recovery Tutors provide professional learning and development for trained teachers. They are skilled teachers, knowledgeable about early literacy, who complete a fulltime year of professional and academic training to enable them to train Reading Recovery teachers and provide ongoing professional development and support for trained teachers. Organisational skills and an ability to work in a team are essential, and proven leadership qualities an advantage. In addition to professional training and academic study, Tutor training involves the daily teaching of children.

For application information contact National Reading Recovery: Tutor Training
natreadrecovery@auckland.ac.nz

Applications close Monday, 2 September 2019.

Ministry of Education Reading Recovery Study Awards

Study awards providing leave with pay and assistance with fees and costs are available for successful candidates – www.TeachNZ.govt.nz/studyawards.

Successful candidates must provide evidence of principal and board of trustees support.

Recipients will be expected to apply for any Tutor position that becomes available throughout New Zealand towards the end of 2020 and subsequently.